

The Giddings Star

August 25, 1955

Bamsch-Arldt Vows Exchanged Aug. 7

Preceded down the aisle of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Serbin by attendants in rose pink and ice blue gowns, Bernelle Bamsch, became the bride of Marvin Arldt on Sunday August 7, at 3:30 p. m.

The wedding march was played by Teacher H. E. Weiseir of Riesel while the congregation sang, "Oh, That The Lord Would Guide My Ways."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Bamsch of Giddings. The bride-groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arldt of Manheim.

Given n marriage by her father the bride wore a ballerina length gown of imported organady in princess design with jewel incrusted flowers outlining the heartshaped bodice. The yoke and overskirt were of tulle. Her coronet, also heartshaped, of the same bejeweled flowers featured on the gown, held a fingertip illusion veil.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. Erwin Arldt. Bridesmaids were Joyce Mitschke, Gladys Teinert, Ruth Kieschnick. Charlyn

Bamsch was her sister's junior bridesmaid while her younger sister Linda, served as flower girl with Wayne Woelfel as ring bearer.

The groom chose his brother Erwin Arldt as best man. The groomsmen were Edgar Arldt, Marvin Bamsch, and Melvin Bamsch. Ushers were Walter Bamsch, uncle of the bride, and Milton Woelfel, brothed-in-law of the groom. The junior grooms man was Milton Kieschnick, cousin of the groom.

The brides' mother was dressed in pale blue with Navy and white accessories, while the groom's mother was dressed in Navy blue with white accessories. They both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Louis Knipstein registered the guests. She was dressed in navy blue with white accessories.

Following the reception at home of the bride's parents the couple left for a wedding trip to Buchanan Dam and Longhorn Cavern after which they will be at home in Giddings.