Bamsch - Zoch Wedding.

At 2:30 o'clock Sunday at Holy Cross Lutheran church at Warda. Miss Louise Bamsch became the wife of Theodor Zoch, 3rd son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Zoch of Northrup amid a large assembly of friends and relatives.

The bride was charming in a wedding gown of white taffeta, with a long flowing skirt and fitted sleeves. Her only ornament being a mother-of-pearl initialed brooch (a gift of the groom). Her veil was caught up into a coronet of simulated seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Lorine Mitschke was her maid of honor, dressed in light blue brocade taffeta. Litte Bernell Bamsch served as flower girl also dressed in blue, while the bridesmaids, Hermine and Dorine Bamsch and Alma and Adele Zoch wore similar gowns of teal blue taffeta and carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses.

The groom was attended by Marvin Zoch and Walter Bamsch as Best Men and Tilderd and Gus Zoch, Ervin Prellop and Eddie Lehmann were the ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple repaired to the home of the bride's mother (Mrs. Ernestine Bamsch), where a bountiful supper was served consisting of barbecued pork, turkey and chicken with all the trimmings. About 175 guests were present. The newly-weds will make their home in Giddings where the groom is employed at Kriegel's store.

A long and happy journey through life is the wish of their many friends.
