BERGER—FARRACK NUPTIALS
SOLEMNIZED SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Miss Irma Berger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Berger of Manheim and Mr. Herbert Farrack, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Farrack of Giddings were joined in holy wedlock Sunday afternoon the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. W. Fischer at the Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Miss Bernice Berger was maid of honor. She was dressed in yellow taffeta carrying a fan style bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and lace ferns. Richard Farrack served as best man. The bridesmaids, Gladys Schneider, Irene Drews, Angelina Wolf, Gussie Drews, Marguerite Schneider, and Lilly Boettcher were dressed in peach and blue, each carrying bouquets of lace fern and yellow chrysanthemums. Norma Toepper and Irma Liberty, serving as junior bridesmaids, were dressed in peach and blue and also carried bouquets of flowers. The flower girls Irene Kappler and Geraldine Liberty were dressed in peach and blue and carried white satin flower baskets filled with mountain beauty flowers.

The bride was beautifully attired in white changeable taffeta and carried a nice bouquet of fan style ferns, gladiolas and lilies of the valley.

Groomsmen were Herbert Berger, George Berger, Elferd Koslan, Walter Duchorn, Fred Unger, and Albert Behrend.

After the church ceremony, a sumptuous wedding feast was served to a large number of guests at the home of the bride's parents. The excellent barbecue had been prepared by Mr. Ernst Unger. The Koslan boys furnished the music for the occasion. Refreshments were served by Mr. Will Schneider and Ernest Farrack.

The couple will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Farrack near Giddings.

The Giddings Star joins the many friends of the newlyweds in extending to them their best wishes for a happy married life.
