

MRS. HUGH MILBURN ENTERTAINS HONORING THE BRIDE-ELECT.

One of the most enjoyable social events during the holidays was a "spend-the-day" party given by Mrs. Hugh Milburn honoring the bride-elect, Miss Effie Jane Black.

The special feature of the day was quilting a quilt for Effie Jane after which all agreed that the old fashion quilting bees must have great sport.

The most enjoyable feature of the party was the dinner served by Mrs. Milburn. Only those who have ever been guests of Miss Verna know how much that was enjoyed.

In the afternoon hot chocolate and cake were served to the following: Mesdames Black Kennerly, Mayfield, and Misses Black, York, Scarborough, Rousseau, and Eason.

After many good wishes for the bride elect and thanks to the hostess the guests departed for home.
