MR. AND MRS. MONROE M. SCHKADE

Miss Beatrice Blosser of Michigan and Monroe M. Schkade Speak Marriage Vows

In a candlelight and double-ring ceremony on Saturday, Feb. 4 at 4 p. m. in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Dearborn, Mich., Miss Beatrice Irene Blosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Blosser, Mark Twain Ave., repeated marriage vows with Monroe Marvin Schkade, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Schkade of Giddings with the Rev. Cagern officiating.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a white lace gown with a high lace collar and three yard train. Pearls and sequins outlined the illusion neckline. Her Juliette cap matched the lace, pearls, and sequins on the gown and held a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses.

Matron of honor was Betty Ann Jones. She wore a pink crystalette gown and matching headpiece and carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations. Joyce Grusecki, bridesmaid, wore a light green gown with matching headpiece and carried pink carnations. Elaine Blosser, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a turquoise gown with matching headpiece and carried yellow carnations. All attendants gowns were styled alike.

Antoinette Sliwinski was flowergirl and wore a yellow gown with matching headpiece and carried a basket of rose petals and mixed flowers.

Wilbert Blosser, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushering were Robert Jones and Robert Sliwinski.

A dinner followed the wedding and a reception was held later in the evening.

The bride chose a green and pink print dress with matching jacket and black accessories for going away.

Among those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Schkade and son, Floyd of Giddings.
