

Lorene Koslan Weds Carl Boes In Lincoln Church Ceremony

Miss Lorene Koslan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koslan of Lincoln, became the bride of Carl Boes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boes of Lincoln, Saturday, Nov. 18, at 4 p. m. at the St. John's Lutheran Church at Lincoln.

Organ music was furnished by Gus Fritsche.

The bride, given in marriage by her oldest brother, was gowned in bridal satin, with fitted bodice with covered buttons down the back, nylon yoke edged with chantilly lace, and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil, edged with chantilly lace, was held by net and orange blossoms. She carried a satin muff, on which was pinned a bouquet of carnations, tied with white satin streamers tied in love knots. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charlie Koslan Jr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gruetzner. They were gowned in aqua taffeta, fashioned with off-the-shoulder collar. They carried aqua muffs with a red carnation corsage pinned on them. They wore ruffled picture hats extending with a bow at the back.

Beatrice Kasper, maid of honor, was dressed identical to the bridesmaids.

The flower girl was dressed in aqua and carried a basket of white ruffled net, with an aqua ribbon tied in a bow.

Melvin Boes was best man. Chas. Koslan Jr. and Gilbert Gruetzner were groomsmen. Ushers were Edmund Koslan and Elmer Boes.

The mothers were dressed in black with black accessories, with a white chrysanthemum corsage.

Reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where 75 guests gathered for a barbecue supper and all the trimmings.

Mrs. Elmer Boes registered the guests. She was dressed in a dark green suit with matching accessories. She also wore a white mum corsage.

For travel, the bride chose a rose colored corduroy suit with black accessories with a white carnation corsage. The corsage had before been pinned on the muff which the bride wore for the ceremony.

The couple is making their home in Houston at 1129 West 14th.

MR. AND MRS. CARL BOES