

Lehmann-Bohot Vows Read in Warda

Miss Ruby Lehmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lehmann of Warda, was recently united in marriage with Alfred Bohot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bohot in the Holy Cross Lutheran Church of Warda.

The Rev. P. C. Eifert officiated at the double-ring ceremony and August C. F. Lange provided the traditional wedding music.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and asters.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white bridal satin, styled with a fitted bodice, a marquise yoke edged with chantilly lace and a long train. The full length veil was held with a crown of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Anton Lorenz, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a yellow frosted organdy gown, with fitted bodice, wide ruffle around neckline, and a full gathered skirt. She wore a picture hat of organdy and carried a nosegay of pink asters.

The bridesmaids were Gladys Bohot, Marilyn Kasper, Wilma Bohot, and Ruth Miertschin. All wore blue frosted organdy styled like the gown of the matron of honor.

They carried pink aster nosegays.

Sharon Lorenz, flower girl, wore yellow organdy. Gerald Lorenz was ring bearer.

Edward Kaiser served the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Charles Krakosky, Wallace Zoch and Marvin Lorenz. Arthur Lehmann and Roland Bohot were the ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in navy with black accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore printed crepe, black accessories, and white carnation corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, where a barbecue dinner was served.

Miss Irene Lorenz, cousin of the bride, registered the guests, while Mrs. W. E. Mahlmann, sister of the bride, served the wedding cake.

The couple left on a wedding trip to San Marcos and San Antonio.

For travel the bride wore a pink suit with a pink carnation corsage and navy accessories.

They are making their home in Houston where both are employed.
