

The Giddings News

March 3, 1950

White Friends Honor
This Negro Couple

Clarendon—White and Negro friends joined in a celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Albert and Mary Boyd here last week. "It was a nice affair, according to a banker's wife who helped arrange the party for the aged Negro couple. They have lived here 26 years and friends of both races praised them for having lived exemplary lives as citizens of this community.