

The Giddings Star
May 23, 1941

BRIDE-ELECT GIVEN MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Alleen Simmang, bride-elect, was given at the community hall Thursday evening of last week by a group of friends. Tall floor baskets containing Easter lilies and Queen Anne's lace stood near where the honoree was seated in a chair decorated in white. Bowls of sweet peas were on the piano and table where the guests registered in the white satin guest book. Mrs. Asa Nisbet of Austin greeted the guests.

Mrs. Bolsins and Mrs. Burns served punch from the lace covered table centered with sweet peas in pastel shades in crystal vases.

Mrs. Marvin Folkes played the wedding march as the bride-elect entered and gave the story of "Love" in song, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Stooksberry and Mrs. Ed McCleskey.

Little Misses Dorothy Ann York and Kathryn Davis presented the gifts in a hamper decorated in white using the patriotic colors red, white and blue.

The guest list included Misses Alleen Simmang, Dorothy Simmang, Bess Black, Mary Elizabeth Campbell, Doris Estes, Marguerite Hillsman, Cora Margot Moore, Dorothy Ann York, Kathryn Davis, Mary Sue Burns, Marguerite Schneider, Sydonia Schatte, Eleanor Fletcher, Rosalie Pitts; Mesdames E. T. Simmang, M. York, Ted Simmang, J. H. Tate, Baker Wright, J. Sterling Hillsman, M. Y. Tate, F. D. Holman, C. Sump, Rudy Weigelt, W. A. Sikes, L. Fariss, J. Will Tate, B. Holman, Mary Falke, Florence Fields, Sam Heyser, John Schneider, August Jahnke, Erie York, R. McElroy, Clara Mattijetz, M. L. Stein, E. Schneider, Marvin Folkes, I. V. Davis, J. R. Thompson, D. S. Walters, Ed McCleskey, Joe Stooksberry, J. D. Moore, R. C. Donaho, Mamie Preuss, A. J. Bolsins, Asa Nisbet, A. J. Nisbet and R. B. Burns.