MRS. BURNS HONORED WITH HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

Mrs. I. V. Davis and Mrs. W. V. Dungan entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Davis with a handkerchief shower honoring Mrs. R. B. Burss who left Sunday to join Dr. Burns in Midland where they will make their home temporarily. Vases of vari-colored chrysanthemums formed the decoration for the living room and dining room. Mrs. Davis presented the honoree with luggage and upon opening it she found it contained an assortment of beautiful handkerchiefs and other gifts. The guests were served sandwiches, cookies, and mints from the lace covered table, a crystal container on a reflector holding chrysanthemums forming the center piece. Tall white tapers in crystal candelabra burned at either end of the table. Mrs. W. B. Denman poured tea. Guests were Mrs. R. B. Burns, Mesdames O. R. Perkins, and W. B. Denman of Briggs, Mesdames Ida Kennerly, W. A. Sikes, R. A. Toler, J. S. Denison, D. H. Dunaway, W. A. Huddleston, W. E. York, M. E. Orndorff, J. S. Hillsman, W. A. Preuss Milton York and Miss Marguerite Hillsman.
