

The Giddings Star

September 27, 1940

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED TUESDAY EVENING

Mrs. F. E. Schkade, joined by her daughter Mrs. L. M. Preuss Jr. honored Miss Viola Dube, bride-to-be of Dalvin Spacek, with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Schkade.

Baskets and vases of queen's crown and white periwinkle formed the decoration for the home. Mrs. Fred Placke gave a toast to the bride-to-be, after which Gypsy Kelly and Carma Jean Heyser, accompanied by Mrs. Sam Heyser on the piano, sang and danced "Ten Pretty Girls." Mrs. G. L. Kelly gave a reading on the romance of lovers, entitled "Viola Bid." The seven day duties of a bride were enacted by Carma Jean Heyser and Joyce Schkade. The bride's book was presided over by Mrs. Albert Schkade.

The gifts were presented to the honoree by the little girls who had a part on the program. On the refreshment plates were tiny cards announcing the date of the wedding. Chicken sandwiches, angel food cake, punch and cookies were served. The guest list included Miss Viola Dube, Mrs. Edna Kuank of San Antonio, sister of the bride, Misses Rosa Lee Pitts, Angela Shomer, Marie Schroeder, Charlotte Tipton, Dora Lanke, Elkanah Preuss, Carma Jean Heyser, Ruth Killian, Gypsy Kelly, Joyce Schkade, and Raymond Schkade; Mesdames Frieda Gersch, Fred Placke, Edwin Schkade, Albert Schkade, Sam Heyser, Fred Sanders, Bernie Schultz, Mamie Preuss, G. L. Kelly, W. E. Kasper, L. M. Groth, Henry Hamff, S. W. Mantzel.