

Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk of Northrup had the pleasure of celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Nov. 15, amidst their children, grandchildren, his father, and a host of relatives, friends, and neighbors.

A barbecue supper with all the accompaniments was served the 225 guests starting at 6 p. m. with refreshments throughout the evening.

The wedding tables were decorated with vases of mums, gladioli and ferns. A double wedding ring cake centered the table flanked by lighted tapers in crystal candlelabra.

Following the supper, their pastor, the Rev. A. Arndt, gave an address on Psalms 143-10. This also being their wedding ceremonial text 25 years ago by the Rev. H. Schmidt. This was followed by the singing of hymns. Also several hymns in the Wendish language by several of the guests. Then followed the opening and admiring of the many beautiful gifts received by the couple of which they are very proud and express their thanks.
