

The Giddings Star
June 13, 1941

DUNK—TONN

In a beautiful church wedding at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon Miss Lillian Dunk, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunk Sr., of Warda became the wife of Rudolf Tonn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tonn of Mannheim with the Rev. P. C. Eifert officiating. The bride wore a beautiful allover white embroidered organdy over a satin slip with her veil caught up by a heart shaped crown of the same material as her gown, trimmed with seed pearls and lillies of the valley, her bouquet being white rose buds and lillies of the valley. Mrs. Daniel Mickan served her sister as matron of honor and was dressed in pink taffeta with green accessories.

The brides' maids were: Alice, Ruth and Tusnelida Dunk, Mildred and Ruth Tonn and Florence Driessner and Ruth Mertink. Dressed in green, Teal blue and lavender taffeta with matching accessories. Little Junelle Dunk and Beverly Ann Ristan were flower girls and scattered rose petals in the path of the bride from little blue baskets. Little George Wm. Dunk was ring bearer and carried the rings on a heart shaped pillow.

The groom wore a blue suit and was served by Henry Dunk Jr. as best man. Dan Mickan and Bill Gallip were the ushers while Fred Foerster, Wilford, Belmont and Arthur Dunk and Victor Tonn and Richard Kissmans served as groomsmen.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the brides' parents where a juicy barbecue and chicken supper with all the trimmings was served to about 85 guests.

The newly weds will make their home with the grooms' parents at present. The writer joins their many friends in wishing them a happy married life.