ALLEN-FASKE

The second wedding Sunday took place Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Imm. Lutheran church when Miss Mary Josephine Allen became the bride of Mr. Otto Emil Faske. Rev. Fischer read from Ephesians 5:1, 2—"Be thou followers of God as dear children, And walk in love as Christ also hath loved us."

Many friends and relatives were present.

The bride wore a handsome gown of ivory satin, veil of ivory tulle and ornaments of crystal. The groom was attired in blue serge. Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Prof. Dube, ushered in the bridal party as follows:

Miss Ella Witte, maid of honor, Monroe Wagner, best man; other bridesmaids and attendants were Miss Emily Unger and Willie Faske, Miss Martha Witte and Louis Hamff, Miss Rose Faske and Karl Mutschink.

Little Bernice Kappler in a fluffy costume of pink, acted as flower girl. Rainbow tins were carried out in the bridesmaids' dresses and each carried arm bouquets of ferns and roses. After the ceremony, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Allen, the bridal party assembled to enjoy a bountiful repast. Miss Mary attended the Giddings school and is known for her sweet personality, while Otto is a young businessman of our city. They left Monday afternoon by motorcycle for a trip to Clifton, after which they will return and make their home in Giddings.

The News joins in wishing them much happiness.
