FISCHER—REINHARDT NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED AT FEDOR

On Sunday afternoon November 24, Miss Louise Fischer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fischer of Fedor and Mr. Marvin Reinhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Reinhardt of Winchester were married at the Ev. Luth. Church at Fedor with Rev. A. F. Michalk performing the ceremony.

The couple entered the church under the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Prof. Theo. Schroeder, former teacher of the bride, who wore a white satin dress made in princess style, wearing a crown veil and corsage of white carnations. Her sister Lena, maid of honor, wore an orchid color dress.

Bridesmaidens were, Erna, Alma, and Lydia Fischer, sisters of the bride and Elsie Reinhardt, cousin of the groom. Bernell Fischer, sister of the bride, served her as flower girl. Arnold Reinhardt, Erwin Zoch, Martin Fischer, and Walter Herbrich served as groomsmen. Bill Fischer, brother of the bride, and Theo. Reinhardt, brother of the groom, were ushers.

After the ceremony the wedding guests drove to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous barbecue dinner was served. Refreshments of all kinds were served during the evening and at midnight another lunch was spread for the guests.

The young couple will make their home on the farm with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Reinhardt near Winchester.

The Giddings Star joins their many friends in extending to the newlyweds their best wishes for a very happy married life.
