

Carolyn Volkers Exchanges Vows With Melvin Fischer at Immanuel's

Miss Carolyn Volkers, daughter of Mrs. H. D. Volkers of Giddings, became the bride of Melvin Fischer Saturday, March 5, at the Immanuel Lutheran Church.

The nuptial rites were performed by Rev. Max Studtmann before an altar decorated with white gladioli, stock, carnations and candy-tuft. Traditional wedding music was presented by Henry Stroebel, who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Irene Schroeder.

Mr. Fischer is a graduate of Giddings High School and is at present employed by Koslan Brothers Furniture Manufacturers.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, H. D. Volkers Jr. of Corpus Christi. She wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace over pale blue satin. Her veil was nylon net, and she carried a satin covered Bible topped by a white orchid.

Mrs. Milton Behrens of Austin was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Charlie Koslan, Miss Dorothy Ann McKeown and Miss Shirley Durow. They were dressed identically in blue net gowns with shoulder length veils. They carried crescent shaped bouquet of red carnations.

The best man was Clarence Zoch, and groomsmen were Charlie Koslan, Milton Behrens of Austin, and Gary Anderson of Corpus Christi.
