

The Giddings News

December 1, 1922

Miss Maggie Folkes Honored

Thursday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson the Presbyterian Auxiliary was the hostess at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Maggie Folkes the bride of the week.

The spacious rooms and halls were beautiful in their simple decorations of ferns and flowers, a general color scheme of green, yellow and white being used, while many candles shed a soft radiance over all.

As the guests arrived, they were met by Mrs. Milton York, then they passed down the receiving line where stood Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. John Knox, Miss Folkes, Mrs. Bobo of Georgetown, and Mrs. J. R. Folkes, and on into the darkened room where each guest registered in the Bride's book. Music was on the violin and by Miss Eleanor Fletcher who gave a beautiful violin selection.

Following this, Little Miss Lallah Rookh Johnson entered bearing a tray on which lay a card with a bit of verse directing Miss Folkes to find, nestling in a fern, the first dainty package of this generous shower. Here she found another verse sending her across the room where lay a pile of lovely gifts with a similar card of direction, and so on from room to room she went on her happy quest until all the gifts were discovered. Then came the pleasant task of opening the packages which was enjoyed by all, and Miss Folkes expressed her appreciation in the most gracious manner.

The honoree and guests were then ushered into the dining room where tea was served by Mrs. Milton York and Miss Lera Drake, after which the bride's cake was cut, Miss Annie Fariss cutting the ring and Miss Posey Waitman the thimble. The many guests present and the many beautiful gifts attested the high regard in which the bride is held and also that after her marriage she will remain in Giddings as Mrs. Bobo.