

The Giddings Star

December 15, 1955

John W. Richter, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist who sang, "The Greatest Step in Life."

The bride and groom entered together. She wore a gown of white bridal slipper satin. The fitted bodice had a scalloped waistline, nylon lace scalloped yoke and long, close-fitting lace sleeves which came to a point over the hands. Tiny satin-covered buttons closed the sleeves and the back of her dress. The full skirt fell into folds and extended into a train. A short satin edged peplum fell from her waist. Her shoulder length veil of nylon tulle was adjusted to a satin headpiece and narrow crown of lace and tiny rosebuds. She carried a colonial type bouquet of white carnations and calla glads with satin streamers.

Mrs. Franklin Fuchs, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of ice blue net over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and scalloped edged yoke studded with tiny seed pearls. She carried a nosegay arrangement of pink carnations and net frills.

Mrs. Erwin Georges and Mae Dell Kelm were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of mauve pink made identical to the matron of honor. They carried nosegay arrangements of gold chrysanthemums.

Junior bridesmaids were Judith Ann Jaster and Sandra Jean Schwartz. They wore pink gowns fashioned like the others. They carried small nosegays of blue carnations and wore small net ruffled bodices and wrist length gloves tied with satin ribbon. Dinah Fay Lebde was flower girl. She wore a gown of white taffeta made like the bride's. She carried a small white lace basket filled with flower petals.

Curtis Lynn Fuchs, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Melvin Fuchs served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Franklin Fuchs and Reuben Braun; Junior groomsmen were Nelson and Nathan Zibilski, twin brothers of the bride. Calvin Lebde and Elwood Jaeger were the ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories. The groom's mother wore a navy suit with navy accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held at Lange's Lake where a barbecue supper was served. The bride's table was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake frosted in white and embossed with rose buds. It was topped with a miniature bride and

Zibilski-Fuchs Vows Told

Miss Joyce Louise Zibilski became the bride of Vernon W. Fuchs in a candlelight ceremony on Sunday, Nov. 20, at the Zionsville Lutheran Church with the Rev. R. Weber officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zibilski of Zionsville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fuchs of Carmine.

The double-ring ceremony was read before the altar adorned with vases of white shasta daisies. Tall white baskets of gladioli and fern decorated the chancel.

groom.

Miss Nina Faye Zibilski was in charge of the bride's book. The cake was cut by Mrs. Melvin Fuchs. Carolyn Blum and Elverra Braun assisted in the serving.

For travel the bride chose a two piece boxer silhouette in navy with black and white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Brenham High School and the groom is a graduate of the Round Top-Carmine High School. The bride will make her home with her parents while the groom resumes his duties in the armed forces.

and Mrs. C. W. Reat of Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Albers and daughter of Bishop visited here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Albers. Sunday all went to Austin where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Hollingsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Eckert and daughter of Pasadena visited here with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Eckert and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Albers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schultz and daughters of Houston are visiting here with the Bathes.