

The Giddings News

July 13, 1923

Longley--Grant

Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Claude S. Grant and Miss Annie Mae Longley were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother in north Giddings, Rev. W. W. Burr officiating.

The wedding was a quiet home affair with only a few relatives and friends present. Miss Maude Heck played the wedding march and the party came in, in the following order; the minister preceeding, then Mr. Will Dungan and Miss Winnie Grant, as best man and bridesmaid, and then the bride and groom.

In a few minutes the service was read which made them husband and wife and congratulations were given by all present.

These young people are well known, and will carry with them the best wishes of a wide circle of friends. Claud is working in the oil fields at Corsican, and Miss Longley has been assistant in the county superintendent's office for the past several months. At midnight, the young people took the train for their new home.

The News joins the many friends of these young people in wishing them a long and happy life.