

RUBY LIBERTY MARRIED TO CARL R. GROMATZKY IN AUSTIN RITES SATURDAY

St. Paul Lutheran Church, Austin was the scene Saturday evening of the marriage of Miss Ruby Liberty to Carl R. Gromatzky. The Rev. Albert F. Jesse officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of P. G. Liberty, Sr., formerly of Giddings and now of San Antonio, and the late Mrs. Liberty. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gromatzky of Eden.

Palms and white gladioli were used in the decorations, and candles lighted the sanctuary.

Mrs. Milton Schroeder, sister of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Song" accompanied by Mrs. George Knippa of Austin, who also played the traditional wedding marches and an organ prelude.

Herman Domaschk of Port Arthur gave his niece in marriage. She wore a Ceil Chapman ankle-length gown of rose beige slipper satin and a brown lace bodice. The skirt was straight in front and hung in soft folds in the back. Self covered buttons trimmed the short fitted jacket fashioned with a rolled collar and three-quarter-length sleeves with tiny cuffs. For accessories, she chose brown suede shoes and a brown velour hat. She wore a gold bracelet worn by her mother at her wedding and carried a white orchid atop a New Testament.

Mrs. Joe Stepas of Austin, matron-of-honor, wore a taupe crepe dress with matching accessories and an ashes-of-roses hat. Her bouquet was of lavender Doty chrysanthemums.

David Ward of Jacksonville was best man, and ushers were Allen Kappler, cousin of the bride, San Antonio; and Edward Gromatzky, brother of the bridegroom, of Eden.

A reception was held in the sun room of the Austin Hotel. The centerpiece was of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, and the three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with roses.

Mrs. James Dixon cut the cake while Mrs. David Ward served the punch. Presiding at the bride's book was Miss Addie Fish of Austin.

As the couple left for a trip to Monterrey, Mexico, the bride was wearing a grey Molly suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple will be at home at 1108 - A West 22nd, Austin while the bridegroom does graduate work at the University of Texas.
