

Vows Repeated

At 8:00 o'clock on Tuesday night, August 31, Miss Jo Ann Mgebhoff, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Fred Mgebhoff of Giddings, became the bride of Mr. John Clinton Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hart of Winchester, in a beautiful candlelight ceremony performed in the Martin Luther Lutheran Church here.

The Rev. J. Fred Mgebhoff, father of the bride, read the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladiola arrangements. Mrs. Emmett Hannes of Giddings, rendered the traditional wedding marches on the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. August L. Wolff, of Giddings, in singing "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by Mr. Emmett Hannes of Giddings, the bride was attired in a white ballerina-length gown of nylon tulle and chantilly lace over acetate taffeta designed with a Peter Pan collar, fitted bodice which fastened down the yoke with tiny self-covered buttons and a pleated tulle skirt. The double fingertip veil of white net edged in wide chantilly lace was attached to a coronet of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried a white satin and lace covered bible, a gift of one of her aunts, on which a lavender orchid and lilies of the valley were fastened.

Miss Ann Kathryn Noack, of Winchester, served as maid of honor. She was attired in ice blue nylon net over dark blue acetate taffeta with ruffles forming the ballerina length skirt. A stole was draped over her shoulders to cover the strapless bodice and form a portrait neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of deep pink carnations.

Mr. Neil Hart, of Winchester, served his cousin as best man.

Ushers were Mr. Carrol Hiescher of Winchester, and Mr. Foster Lee Meier, of Giddings.

Mrs. Mgebhoff, mother of the bride, was dressed in navy with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Hart, mother of the groom, wore a dress of aqua with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The three grand mothers of the couple, Mrs. S. C. Hart and Mrs. J. F. Rosenhein, both of Winchester, and Mrs. Henry Lammert, of Clifton, wore white carnation corsages.

Registering the guests at the lovely bridal book before the ceremony was Miss Joyce Hart, of Winchester, sister of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church educational building. Centering the beautiful refreshment table, which was laid with a white linen cloth, was the brides bouquet.

Miss Joyce Hart served the delicious three-tiered wedding cake, which was iced in white and decorated with lovebirds and rosebuds, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Sister of the groom, Miss Jean Hart, of Austin, served the fruit punch from a beautiful crystal punch bowl. Other members of the house party were Mrs. A. E. Fischer and Miss Carol Jean Hannes, both of Giddings.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hart left for a short wedding trip to Galveston. For travel Mrs. Hart wore a beige Cortalene Rayon Satin suit with black velvet collar and cuffs. Her accessories were of black jeweled velvet. Her corsage was the lavender orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Hart is a senior student at Giddings High School. Mr. Hart is a graduate of La Grange High School and has accepted a position with a local business firm. They are making their home with the brides parents at the present time.
