FISCHER—HERTEL NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

The Fischer—Hertel nuptials were solemnized in the spacious garden of the Santa Fe Inn, Santa Fe, N. Mexico, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock June 15, with the Rev. T. G. Schoech, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, officiating.

The bride is Miss Florence Fischer, daughter of the Rev. George W. Fischer of Giddings, Texas, and the groom is Charles A. Hertel, son of Dr. H. G. Hertel, also of Giddings.

The bride was attired in a formal dress of aqua blue marquisette. She wore a shell pink picture hat with velvet streamers, and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Frances Ferguson of Santa Fe wore a formal dress of flowered blue chiffon with picture hat in harmonizing colors. Her corsage was of sweet peas.

The groom was attired in a white gaberdine summer suit. He was attended by George E. McWhirter of Amarillo who was similarly dressed. Guest was Mrs. Fannie T. Warnecke who wore a black formal dress and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The bride and groom entered the garden to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. Vocal solo, "At Dawning," was sung by Mr. McWhirter. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served to the bridal couple and guests in the hotel's glass-enclosed sun-room overlooking the mountains.

Miss Fischer is at present Acting State Director of Public Health Nursing for the State of New Mexico. She received her academic training at Vanderbilt and Columbia Universities, and her professional training at Walther Memorial Hospital at Chicago. She has been stationed in New Mexico for a year and a half.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Texas and will receive his M. A. degree from the University of Colorado, Boulder, at the end of the summer. He is at present instructor of Journalism in Amarillo High School, Amarillo, Texas.

The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for Boulder, Colorado, where they will be at home until September 1, after which time they will reside in Amarillo.

The Giddings Star joins the many friends of this popular couple in extending to them their best wishes for a very happy married life.
