Told in Serbin

Miss Ruth Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Becker of Serbin, became the bride of Richard Herzog, son of Mrs. Ernest Herzog of Fedor, in a double-ring ceremony performed in the Serbin Church on April 9. The Rev. A. Arndt officiated.

The bride wore a gown made of white slipper satin with a net yoke and rhinestones and her sleeves came to points over her wrists. She carried a bouquet of white roses with lace fern and satin streamers.

Her long train fell from a crown of orange blossoms.

Her sister, Amanda Becker, was maid of honor. She wore a yellow gown and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Alice Ruth Bohot and Adele Becker, cousin of the bride, and Ariene Herzog and LaVerna Urban, cousins of the bridegroom. They were dressed in aqua and pink gowns, and their bouquets were of pink and aqua roses, with colors alternated.

Carolyn Prellop, flower girl, wore a light blue gown and carried a white basket filled with flower petals.

Royce Herzog, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Groomsmen were Elbert Becker, cousin of the bride, Otto Becker Jr., brother of the bride, Edwin Schneider and Walter Schulze, friends of the couple.

Ushers were Rubin Becker, brother of the bride, and Herbert Lehman, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. A delicious pork barbecue with all the trimmings was served to approximately 125 guests.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, which was made by Mrs. E. A. Dunk of Serbin.

The couple is at home with the bridegroom's mother.
