

D. C. Hollingsworth And Ruby Zech Wed at Lawton

A double ring ceremony, in simple dignity, was read at the St. John Lutheran church of Lawton Sunday afternoon, June 22 at 2:45 p. m. to unite Miss Ruby Zech and D. C. Hollingsworth, well known Ryan couple. The couple recited their vows under the direction of Rev. C. W. Hoffman, in the presence of relatives.

A musical setting was provided by Mrs. T. Rudolph, of Lawton. The church was decorated with basket arrangements of gladiolus, white daisies and masses of greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractively attired in a white ballerina length gown featuring charmingly imported lace and nylon tulle over bridal satin, with full gathered skirt and molded bodice, with sweetheart neckline. Seed pearls added accent of important interest on the lace bolero, and on the bride's demurely charmingly accented headpiece, the latter holding her illusion veil which cascaded to waist length in graceful lines. She completed her costume with white accessories and carrying a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Wilbert Zech was matron of honor and was dressed in powder blue ballerina length of crinkle organza. Best man was Wilbert Zech.

The mothers of the bride and groom were both dressed in grey bemberg with carriages of white carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Zech home at 7:00 p.m. for friends and relatives.

A two tiered wedding cake, with miniature bride and groom and tea, were served by Mrs. Sallie Basterre of Sulphur, from the beautifully appointed refreshment table.

The young couple will establish residence here in Ryan. Mr. Hollingsworth is employed at Halliburton's in Lawton.
