

The Giddings News
September 10, 1920

HURST—HESTER WEDDING

Word was received here Wednesday morning announcing the marriage of Mr. Lendon Hurst and Miss Ethel Hester, of Lexington, which took place at Cameron Tuesday night. Miss Hester comes from one of the most prominent families of Lexington, where she was born and reared and has many friends. Mr. Hurst needs no introduction here, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hurst and was born and reared here. He has been living at Lexington the past few months where he is R. F. D. carrier. This young couple have a host of friends whom are more or less surprised to hear of their wedding, but wish for them all success and happiness through life.