

IVEY — SIMMANG NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED SUNDAY

Miss Dorothy Claire Simmang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Simmang, became the bride of Lieutenant Robert Henry Ivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ivey of San Marcos, Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton York, sister of the bride. Dr. Guy B. Duff, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony before the immediate families.

The home was decorated in an all white floral theme. Palms and ferns banked before the fireplace formed the background for the altar. White daisies filled the mantel and were used in tall baskets and vases. Floor candelabra holding white tapers completed the bridal theme. Prior to the ceremony the candles were lighted by Misses Sue Ann Ivey, sister of the groom, and Dorothy Ann York, niece of the bride.

The bridal music was given by Mrs. Leyendecker of Columbus, sister of the groom. During the ceremony, at the request of the bride, she played an original composition. Lohengrin's wedding march was used as a processional.

The bride wore a powder blue dress and hat with tan bark accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of white she carried, for something old, the orchids. As an added bit of sentiment she carried the lace handkerchief which her mother and two sisters had used in their weddings. Her going-away ensemble was a chartreuse suit with palm brown accessories.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the assembled families. Pink and white snapdragons were used in the dining room. The wedding cake was three tiered crescent shaped, decorated with tiny spun-sugar rosebuds and valley lillies. On the top tier were two wedding bells and a miniature bride and groom stood on the second tier. Mrs. J. S. Simmang poured coffee and Mrs. G. B. Robertson presided at the table.

The bride attended Mary Hardin-Baylor college, Southwest Texas Teachers College, the University of Texas, and has taught in the schools in LeCompton county.

Lieutenant Ivey was graduated May 29 from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. He also attended A & M college before going to West Point. His first assignment is to Fort Benning, Georgia for which place the newly weds left shortly after the ceremony.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ivey, Miss Sue Ann Ivey, San Marcos; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Leyendecker and Jimmie, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ivey, San Antonio; Mrs. G. B. Robertson, LeCompton, La.; Miss Sylvia Ann Bourland, Corpus Christi; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Simmang, Sr., Judge and Mrs. J. S. Simmang and Mary Kay; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Simmang, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Milton York, Miss Dorothy Ann York, all of Giddings.