

The Giddings News

January 9, 1920

McKEOWN—JAMISON.

Along with Christmas times and holly berries Dan Cupid came again and among other pranks of this sky self, the hearts of Miss Bessie McKeown of this city and Mr. Paul Jamison of Waukegan became the targets for his arrows.

About six o'clock on the evening of the 2nd of December, a goodly number of friends and relatives gathered at the spacious and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McKeown to witness the marriage of their daughter Miss Bessie, to Mr. Paul Jamison.

The large number of friends present attested the deserved popularity of the bride. And while Mr. Jamison was not so well known here still he has won many friends during his short visits.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a gray silk with veils to match, while her dress was decorated with silver blossoms.

The house was tastily decorated with holly mistletoe.

The wedding march was played by Miss Aurelia Baker, and the ceremony read by Rev. W. W. Burr.

After the ceremony the guests were invited out to the dining room where the table fairly groined under the load of good things to eat. Although the table was large, yet it was filled several times with guests and still the supply of good things seemed undiminished.

It is understood the young folks will be at home to their many friends for several days at the McKeown residence.

The News extends most hearty congratulations and joins a multitude of friends in wishing for them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

For Sale: I have several nice farms and some choice city property for sale.
See J. T. Robinson.