

MR. AND MRS. CARL H. FARRACK

Carl Farrack Weds Houston Girl In Double-ring Ceremony

Sylvia Jones became the bride of Carl H. Farrack in a double-ring ceremony at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Houston Sunday, Sept. 17. The Rev. Elmo E. Miertschin officiated. White gladioli and yellow asters were placed about the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Jones of Houston and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Farrack of Giddings.

Robert P. Dosien, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Betty Jean Sellers who sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bridal gown was made by the bride and fashioned of ice blue dutchess satin, entranced with a matching yoke of chantilly lace. The gown extended into a one yard circular train. Her headdress was a matching crownless picture hat of lace, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and Cape Jasmine showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Jewell Osminer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown, fashioned after the bride's gown, was also made by the bride and fashioned of aqua taffeta with matching yoke of lace. She also wore a white crownless picture hat of lace and mitts to match, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and satin streamers.

Her bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Farrack and Miss Sadie Mae Upchurch. They wore gowns of dusty rose taffeta and carried bouquets of orchid asters and streamers. The flower girl was Hazel Upchurch. Her gown was of pink taffeta. She carried a nosegay of pink and blue carnations and satin streamers. The ring bearer was Ernest Teinert Jr.

Edwin L. Farrack, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Herbert Farrack, cousin of the bridegroom and Antone Mitschke, uncle of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at 417 E. 14th immediately following the ceremony. Seasonal flowers were placed about the rooms. Mrs. Marie Coamono was in charge of the bride's book and registered about 75 guests. The house party consisted of Mrs. J. A. Wieser, Selma Teinert, Florence Proske, Minnie Mitschke, Beatrice Hightower, Jean Jones, and Ruby Jones. The bride's table was laid in white and decorated in white gladioli. The centerpiece was a three tiered wedding cake.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom chose navy blue dresses. Corsages were white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrack left for a wedding trip to West Texas and on return will be at home at 417 E. 14th, Houston.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Farrack and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Proske and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raschke and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Teinert and son, Willie and Albert Hobratschk of Giddings; Fritz Schroeder of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Berger and family of Carmine; and George Strause of South Bend, Indiana.
