

The Giddings News

June 27, 1941

Mrs. Henry Lehmann Is Honor Guest Mesdames R. B. Burns and Ida Kennerly entertained with a tea from four to six on June 21 honoring Mrs. Henry Lehmann, who before her marriage was Miss Tommy Jones of Austin.	lace cloth centered with roses and daisies and tall white tapers in silver candelabra. Flowers in the remainder of the reception rooms consisted of baskets of pastel colored summer flowers. Refreshments consisted of assorted cookies,
Mrs. W. B. Dungan greeted the guests at the door. In the receiving line were Mesdames R. B. Burns, Ida Kennerly, Henry Lehmann, Jr., Henry Lehmann, Sr., and Alvin Lehmann. Mrs. Marvin Folkes and Mrs. Joe Stooksberry rendered vocal and musical selections throughout the evening. Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. J. Will Tate.	sandwiches, mints and punch. Pouring punch for the first hour were Mesdames J. S. Hillman and Tommie Miller, and for the second hour Mesdames M. E. Orndorff and Ira Dippel. Miss Ruth Moore and Mesdames Oscar Armstrong and Erwin Kriegel assisted in serving in the dining room. A large number of guests called to meet
The table was laid with a	Mrs. Lehman.