Vows Exchanged

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Miss Carolyn Ann Kappler and John Moerbe on Aug. 6 in a double-ring ceremony at Immanuel Lutheran Church. Officiating at the rites was the Rev. Max Studtmann.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clara Kappler of Giddings, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moerbe Jr. of Warda.

Ferns and white seasonal flowers formed the altar background for the marriage service. H. Y. Stroebel, organist, provided the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Leonard Kappler. She was dressed in a gown of white satin, styled with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Miss Vernille Moerbe, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a blue gown fashioned with a taffeta bodice scalloped onto an organdy yoke.

Best man was Roy Moerbe, brother of the bridegroom. Clarence Schultz and Lee Roy Kappler served as ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, where a barbecue dinner was served to approximately 125 guests. Miss Ruth Kappler was in charge of the bride's book, and Misses Nell Munsell and Frances Kappler presided in the gift room.

The couple is making their home here, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.
