*Miss Eunice Kasper Becomes Bride
Of Robert Lorenz Jr., in Rites Here*

The Immanuel Lutheran Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Eunice Kasper and Robert Lorenz Jr., on June 26 at 6 p. m.

Rev. Max Studtmann performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms and baskets holding white gladiolas and daises. Candelabras lighted the scene.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Herbert Kleschnick, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over blush pink bridal satin. It was styled with a round neckline outlined with scallops and long tapering sleeves to the wrists. Tiny self covered buttons fastened the dress to the waist line and the bouffant skirt, designed in a redingote style, formed a chapel length train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a small tiara set with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with white orchids and trimmed with pink satin and net.

Miss Virginia Kasper was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Miriam Tate, Shirley Mersiovsky, Marilyn Graeber of Carmine and Mrs. Albert Hempel of Houston. Flower girls were Deborah Slocumb and Mary Karen Kosian. Their gowns were aqua net over taffeta with round neck bodices and full skirts. They carried straw baskets containing pink gladiolas trimmed with net. They wore headdresses of aqua net bandeau.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Giddings High School Gymnasium where a barbecue dinner was served to approximately 300 guests.
