

The Giddings News

January 16, 1931

PLACKE - KASPER

A wedding of unusual beauty was that of Miss Clara Placke and Walter E. Kasper on New Year's evening at 5 o'clock at the Immanuel Lutheran church, Rev. G. W. Fischer performing the double ring ceremony. As the pipe organ peeled out the sweet strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, the ushers Martin and Fred Placke, entered. They were followed by the groom's attendants Rev. Carl E. Kasper and Edwin Biar. Then came the maids, Miss Minnie Moerbe wearing Nile green satin crepe and lace hat with green velvet trimmings, and carrying an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, and Miss Hilma Roltsch wearing orchid satin crepe and lace hat with orchid velvet trimmings, and carrying an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. They were followed by the maid of honor Miss Lydia Wagner wearing pink crepe roumaine and pink hat, and carrying an arm bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Little Lloyd Schuhmann, dressed in a sailor suit, was the ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Dolores Heyser and Elkana Preuss were flower girls and wore pink crepe. The bride entered on the arm of the groom and was beautiful in a creation of white satin crepe with veil entrain, which was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and fern. Prof. K. E. Dube played the wedding music. A sumptuous wedding feast was served at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. George Placke, Sr. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kasper and is assistant cashier of the Citizens State Bank. They left for a wedding trip to Houston and Port Arthur. Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Rev. Carl E. Kasper, J. C. Miller of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kasper and little daughter Bettye Lou of Port Arthur; Miss Hilma Roltsch and Will Roltsch of La Grange; Miss Marie Killian of Austin; Miss Ethel Fischer of Houston; Rev. Durow and family of Loebau; Edwin Biar of Valpariso, Ind.; Ben Zoch of Temple.

The News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.