KENG-ELS

Mrs. Annie Keng and Robert Els were quietly married Thursday of last week and they will make their home in the Concord community. Both parties have lived in Lee County many years and have many friends who wish them well in their newest matrimonial adventure. Mr. Els has been living in Arkansas for the past several years, but he was finally lured back to Texas. His two daughters and one son have also returned and will make their home here.

The News wishes the two newly-weds a long and happy life.
