

MRS. GEORGE KIESCHNICK

Winkler-Kieschnick Vows Told At Fedor Church October 28

Miss Edna Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Winkler, became the bride of George Kieschnick, Saturday, Oct. 28, in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. L. Karcher at Trinity Lutheran Church at Fedor.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Prof. O. H. Kieschnick of Georgetown. He also accompanied Mrs. Edwin Falke of Taylor, soloist, who sang "The Lord is My Shepherd."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin, with pointed bodice and marquise yoke trimmed with beads and seed pearls. The gathered skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace and was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums arranged with satin ribbon.

Miss Ruby Winkler, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in turquoise satin, fashioned with marquise yoke, gathered skirt, which ended in scallops and trimmed with matching roses, extended over a hoop. Her headdress consisted of ruffles of net. She wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Miriam Kieschnick of Temple and Miss Evelyn Kieschnick, cousins of the bridegroom and sister of the bridegroom respectively, served as bridesmaids. They were gowned in yellow satin fashioned like the maid of honor's gown. They also carried white carnations.

Miss Darlene Biehle of Houston, cousin of the bride, served as flower girl. She was dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Dennie Foerster, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ringbearer.

Bobby Zoch of Houston and Martha Elaine Kieschnick of Lincoln, nephew and niece of the bridegroom, were the miniature bride and bridegroom.

Herman Kieschnick Jr. served his brothers as best man.

Groomsmen were Marvin Pirlack of Fedor and Murphy Biehle of Houston, both cousins of the bride.

Erwin Winkler of Fedor and Gus Kieschnick of Austin were the ushers.

The mothers of the couple were both dressed in navy and wore corsages of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a delicious barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served to approximately 150 guests.

A three tiered wedding cake centered the bride's lace laid table.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming and ranching.
