

LILLIAN WAGNER BECOMES BRIDE OF THEODOR W. KILIAN

The Immanuel Lutheran Church provided the setting for a candle-light marriage ceremony Sunday evening when Miss Lillian Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wagner became the bride of Theodore W. Kilian, son of Mrs. Martha Kilian and the late Rev. Theodore W. Kilian. The Rev. Max Studdtmann read the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with ferns and baskets of white chrysanthemums and candelabra bearing white tapers.

Soloist was Mrs. Milton Schroeder who sang the "Twenty-Third" accompanied by Mr. Henry Stroebel, who also played the wedding Psalm and a "Wedding Prayer", marches.

Ivory Satin Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in a creation of ivory satin with scalloped neckline outlined in seed pearls and full skirt which extended into a cathedral train.

Her full-length veil of imported illusion was caught to an arrangement of orange blossom. She carried a bouquet of white feathered Chrysanthemum.

Miss Anita Wagner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, was attired in an aqua satin gown and matching satin coronet. She carried a bouquet of rose chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Misses Evelyn Wagner, Wyonita Lorenz, Dorothy Lee Mutschink, Lucille Hensel, Mesdames Milton Namken and George Lee Preuss. They wore identical gowns of dusty rose satin with matching headdresses and carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Each of the attendants wore gloves matching her gown.

Necklaces worn by the attendants were gifts of the bride.

Herman J. Kilian twin-brother of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were Cornell Droemer and Roy Hooks.

A reception was held in the Parish House immediately after the ceremony. The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with the brides' bouquet on a mirror reflector flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The three-tiered brides cake topped with bells and bride-and-bridgroom figurines was served by Mrs. Herman Kilian of San Antonio.

Mrs. Richard Wolf and Mrs. Charles Koslan served coffee, Miss Lynette Faske presided at the guest book.

The brides' mother wore a grey gabardine suit with black accessories while the mother of the groom was dressed in rust gabardine and also with black accessories. Both wore corsages of yellow chrysanthemums.

Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Kilian left for a wedding trip for Carlsbad, New Mexico and other western points. For travel the bride chose a turquoise blue charmaine gabardine suit with brown accessories. She wore a white chrysanthemum corsage. The couple will make their home in Giddings.

The 'Star' extends best wishes to the newlyweds for a very happy married life.
