

Knippa-Malinak Nuptials Told at Dime Box

St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Dime Box was the scene Saturday afternoon at four o'clock for the wedding of Miss Carolyn Knippa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Knippa and Frank Malinak Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malinak Sr.

The Rev. George Tydlacka officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Henry Krenek played the wedding marches and, with Miss Josephine Malinak, sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" and "O Sacred Heart, O Love Divine."

The bride's gown of white capri was ballerina length. The fitted bodice was designed in a strapless fashion and covered by a bolero of white lace. A fitted cap of white velvet, dotted with rhinestone, held her fingertip veil of illusion.

The bride's bouquet was a purple-throated orchid with satin streamers, which she carried over a white prayer book, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Nellene Eichler was maid of honor and Miss Louise Malinak was bridesmaid. They were dressed in ice-blue dresses, identical to the bride's, and wore matching ice-blue head pieces. They carried colonial nosegays of red carnations with blue satin streamers.

Riney Spacek was the bridegroom's best man, and Marvin Knippa, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the lunch room of Dime Box High School. Punch and cake were served to fifty-five guests by the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Malinak

Stanley Penner and Miss Margaret Malinak.

For traveling, the bride chose a light brown dress of dacron with white accessories.

After a short trip the couple will reside in Austin at 1602½ Manor Road.
