

KORB - ANSOHN

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony at the Assembly of God church in Giddings, Miss Wanda Ansohn of Austin became the bride of John Korb of Giddings September 21, at 8:30 P. M.

Rev. Roy Bounds of Anstin officiated assisted by Rev. M. C. Rutherford. The vows were taken before a flower-laden altar on either side of which was a U. S. flag. Miss Lola Helmer of Houston sang "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony accompanied by Miss Alice Kipp at the piano. Mrs. Roy Bounds played the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Paul Ansohn, matron of honor, and Miss Lola Helmer, bridesmaid, wore navy blue with corsages of pink carnations. Little Miss Joan Bounds was flower girl.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Rev. Paul Ansohn of Bruni, Texas, wore a suit of brown silk celanese, with brown accessories and a corsage of white gladiola. The groom also wore brown and was attended by his brother, Emil R. Korb of Los Angeles, California.

A reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wanda Ansohn of Concord, followed the ceremony. Rev. M. C. Rutherford gave a short address, and Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ansohn rendered appropriate saxophone and accordion selections. Miss Alice Kipp presided at the bride's book.

Guests from a distance included Mrs. Robert Platte of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Ansohn, and Mrs. C. H. Whisenant and twin daughters of Houston.

The bride is a graduate of Central Bible Institute, Springfield, Mo., and has been an active church worker in Texas for many years. She has spent the last three years in the Austin section, and is at present secditional director of the Women's Missionary Council.

The groom has of late been employed by the Fairmont Creamery Company in Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Korb left Tuesday morning for a short wedding trip to Waco and returned Thursday evening in order that John might leave for service in the army Friday morning.
