

The Giddings Star

December 8, 1955

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN WACHSMANN

Koslan - Wachsmann Vows Exchanged

Miss Jeanette Koslan and Marvin Wachsmann were married Saturday, Nov. 5, at 4 o'clock p. m. at the Ebenezer Lutheran Church at Manheim.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. G. T. Naumann of Manheim before an altar decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Teacher E. E. Heintze of Manheim, organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Koslan of Manheim and the bridegroom is the son of Herbert Wachsmann of Manheim.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a wedding dress fashioned of chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. The fitted bodice of lace was cut in a point both front and back and the edge was finished in a hand rolled cord of lace. The low neckline was filled in with nylon illusion and the edge was finished with a small collar of lace. Iridescent sequins and seed pearls embroidered the collar, and long sleeves came to petal points over the hands.

The full skirt of lace, worn over crinolines, was bordered in a pleated flounce of tulle that extended down the back of the chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a lace cap embroidered in iridescent sequins and seed pearls.

The bride carried a small prayer book covered with satin and surrounded with carnations and lillies of the valley with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Lawrence Underwood of Austin, aunt of the bride, was Matron of honor. She was dressed in a floor length gown of light blue net with ruffles over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frances Wachsmann and Miss Ruth Wachsmann, sisters of the groom, both of Manheim, and Miss JoAnn Schwausch, cousin of the bride of Copperas Cove. The attendants wore identical floor length gowns with light blue net with ruffles over taffeta. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss Carol Williams, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid, and Miss Janet Koslan, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. They were dressed in pink net with ruffles over taffeta, identical to the matron of honor and bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaid carried a bouquet of light blue carnations; the flower girl carried a pink basket with flowers.

Milton Wachsmann, brother of the groom of Hamilton, Co. Ill. served as best man. Glenn Wachsmann, nephew of the groom was ring bearer, and Allen Gene Birbaum, cousin of the groom, was junior groomsman.

Gilbert Koslan, Wilfred Koslan, brothers of the bride, and Clarence Jatzlau were groomsman.

Herbert Koslan, uncle of the bride and Lawrence Wachsmann, brother of the groom served as ushers.

Miss Alice Wachsmann, cousin of the groom was in charge of the bride's book. The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with white accessories. Immediately after the ceremony, a delicious barbecue with all the trimmings was served to approximately 200 guests, at the Lincoln Community Hall.