Gladys Kubsch, Royce Krakosky Wed in Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Gladys Kubsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kubsch of Serbin, became the bride of Royce Krakosky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Krakosky, Sunday, Nov. 12, at 2:30 p. m. at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Serbin.

The Rev. A. Arndt performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar adorned with large baskets of white chrysanthemums.

H. E. Weiser presided at the organ and played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the congregation in singing "The Lord is My Shepard."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of white satin, styled with a fitted bodice, long sleeves coming to points over her wrists, marquise yoke, outlined by a wide collar of lace and satin. Her full bustle skirt, edged with lace, fell into a long train. Her long veil of illusion was edged with wide lace, falling from a crown of orange blossoms and rhinestones. Her only jewelry was a necklace over 100 years old. It belonged to the bridegroom's grandmother. She carried a nosegay bouquet of large white mums, surrounded by white chrysanthemums and net puffs, tied with a wide satin bow.

Mrs. Leroy Steglich, dressed in light blue satin, attended the bride as matron of honor. Her headdress was of blue net and satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums edged with a net ruffle.

Leroy Steglich attended the bridegroom as best man.

Bridesmaids were Marilyn Kasper, Barbara Biar, and Gladys Prellop. They were dressed in light green, amethyst, and yellow respectively. Their headdresses and bouquets were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Linda Jean Steglich was flower girl. She was gowned in pink.

Groomsmen were Clarence Pietsch, Fred Kubsch, and John Kubsch Jr.

Louis Malke and Wilford Noack were ushers.

Helen Steglich, dressed in gold taffeta, registered the guests and Irma Mertink, gowned in blue taffeta, presided in the gift room. They wore corsages of orchid and yellow chrysanthemums respectively.

The bride's mother, dressed in green with black accessories, and the bridegroom's mother, dressed in grey with black accessories, wore corsages of white chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony, a barbecue supper was served to approximately 175 guests at the home of the bride's parents.
