LAAKE — VOLKERS NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Doris Laake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Laake, became the bride of Adolph Volkers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Volkers Wednesday evening of last week by soft candle light in the study of Rev. Walter G. Tillmanns, pastor of the Martin Luther Church, who officiated. The only attendants were the bride's parents.

The bride chose for her wedding dress brown alpaca and her accessories were amber. Immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom left for Houston and other points for a week-end trip, after which they returned here as he is on a two week's furlough from Fort Sam Houston.
