DUBE - LERCHE

In a pretty church wedding Miss Joshie Lerche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lerche of Fedor, and Mr. Richard Dube, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dube of Fedor were married at the Fedor church Sunday evening. The bridal party marched in to the strains of Lohengrin played by Prof. Theo. Schroeder. The maid of honor Mrs. Erie Melde, sister of the bride, and attended by Misses Francis Jatzlau, Lina Fischer, La Verne Symank and Laura Dube, bridesmaids, Messers Edwin Lerche, Herbert Dube, Franklin Do-mann and Monroe Zschech, the groomsmen, and the ushers Walter Dube and John Lerche.

A large audience was present to witness the ceremony. Following a congregational singing of the hymn, "O Lord how lovely now Lord Jesus Christ." Rev. A. F. Michalk delivered a short marriage address and then performed a solemn ceremony which made them husband and wife. "Thy way, not mine, O Lord" was sung by the Trinity Choir.

The bride was attired in a pretty costume of white satin and lace and carried a beautiful bouquet of calla lilies. The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore pretty dresses of moire taffeta, carrying bouquets of pink roses. The groom was dressed in navy blue.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents. About one hundred guests were in attendance, many of them from Fedor. Later many young folks gathered to enjoy the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dube were the recipients of many pretty and useful gifts. They intend to make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dube.

A good collection for the Red Cross was taken on this occasion.

The News joins the many friends in wishing the newly-weds a long and happy life.
