W. A. Locke Jr., Bride Exchange Vows In Kansas

Miss Norma Ruth Winter and Walter A. Lowke Jr. exchanged vows at 11 o'clock the morning of Feb. 14 in First Christian Church of Emporia. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. George K. Winter, Virgil, Kan., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Lowke, Harlingen, Tex.

The Rev. W. Howard Holverson read the vows and Mrs. Robert Melton was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over net and satin. It was styled with scalloped Sabrina neckline, long tapered sleeves and fitted princess bodice. The aisle-wide skirt formed a chapel train. A queen's crown, studded with iridescent sequins on lace medallions, held her silk illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of red carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Kenneth Lovelace, Houston, was her sister's matron of honor and wore a red peau de soie satin sheath fashioned with scoop neckline and full overskirt. Her red net hat was caught by a heart-shaped tiara and she carried a colonial bouquet of white mums.

Mr. Lovelace served as best man and Lavern G. Winter, Virgil, was usher.

Assisting at the church reception were Mmes. J. W. Tomlinson, Welleville, Kan.; Marvin L. Winter, Orwin L. Winter, Virgil; and W. E. Thompson, Emporia. Miss Barbara Winter, Wichita, was at the guest book.

For going away, Mrs. Lowke chose a heather vicose and silk suit of charcoal and gray, a red satin hat, red accessories and a red carnation corsage. Following their trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lowke will reside in Dallas.
