

The Giddings News

August 22, 1941

MALINAK - KOMAR

Sunday, at 8 o'clock, Miss Lillian Malinak became the bride of F. J. Komar in St. Joseph's church in Dime Box. Rev. Father Thomas Matl performed the ceremony.

The bridal procession entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. J. A. Polansky. The bride's attendants were Little Miss Margaret Malinak as flower girl; Mrs. Johnny Fleckenstein, twin sister of the bride, as matron of honor; Miss Lorraine Komar, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. The attendants of the groom were Russell Malinak as ringbearer, Johnny Fleckenstein as best man, Freddie Komar, brother of the groom, as groomsman.

Immediately after the marriage ceremony, Mrs. J. A. Polansky and daughter, Miss Loree, sang "Ave Maria."

The bride wore a close-bodied gown of bridal satin trimmed with marquisette, with sweeping train and long sleeves. Her veil of bridal illusion and wreath of orange blossoms were family heirlooms. She carried a bouquet of white carnation and lace fern. Her little flower girl was dressed in white. The matron of honor and the bridesmaid were gowned in pink musoline de soie over flesh-colored satin and carried bouquets of pink rosebuds.

The wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Malinak of Dime Box.

After a wedding trip to Monterey, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Komar will make their home in College Station where Mr. Komar has a responsible position with A. and M. College.