

The Giddings News

October 24, 1941

Shower for Bride-To-Be.

Mrs. E. A. Dunk and daughters were hostesses at a shower for Miss Edna Malke, a bride-to-be early in November at their home Tuesday night.

The room was pretty decorated in pink and white paper and cut flowers, the honoree's favorite colors. She was ushered to her seat of honor by Miss Dorothy Malke and Adelia Zoch after which a big laundry basket was delivered to her by Kenneth Ray Weiser and Charles Lorenz. Much to the surprise of the honoree who was asked over for an ice cream supper.

After opening and admiring the gifts the hostess served a plate of hot coffee, sandwiches, cake and cookies. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Malke, Ernst Lorenz, E. A. Dunk, Chas. Tschatschula, Mrs. Ernestine Bamsch, Dorine, Hermine and Milton Banisch, G. G. Zoch, Gerh. and Alma Noack, Edward Kolmann, Arvilla Kasper, Gerh. Becker and wife, and Adelia, Mrs. Anna Farrack, Aug. Schülze, Dorothy and Louis Malke, Herbert Scharschick, Kenneth Ray and Velma Jean Weiser, Lorine Malke, Tusnela and Alice Ruth Dink, and the honoree Miss Edna Malke.