

NORTHROP NEWS

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Malke of near Warda but formerly of here had the privilege of celebrating their silver wedding anniversary Sunday evening, Feb. 1 at the home of his sister, Mrs. Selma Becker, where a number of their relatives, friends and former neighbors came to wish them well.

At around 6 o'clock everyone began to arrive and shortly after a sumptuous barbecue supper of chicken and pork with all the accompaniments was served to the following:

Rev. Walter Streicher and daughter, Teacher Paul Rebsch, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foerster and Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Teinert and family, and Mrs. Hulda Teinert, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bamsch and son, Mrs. Ernestine Bamsch, the Ernest Lehmanns and Harry Mitschkes, the Louis Malkes, Gus, Malke, the Milton Moerbes, the Gerhardt and Herman Menzels and Martin Menzel, George Schwausch, Florence Urban, the Emil Steglichs, Miss Selma Steglich.

The E. A. Dunks, the H. P. Weisers, Herman and Bill Mit-tasch, Junelle Dunk, Martin Domaschks, Gerh. Driessners, Herbert Jurks, Alvin Walthers, Mat Mertink, Ben Urbans, Alvin Zochs, Anna Farrack, Aug. Schulze Sr., Theodor Hohle, Chas. Tschatschulas, and the hostess, Mrs. Selma Becker, and daughter Adele, and the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Malke and sons Ervin and Freddie.

The table for the celebrants was centered by a very pretty three-tiered wedding cake decorated with sugared roses, love birds and an arch with a 25 in silver in its center and adorned by silver tinsel ribbon which was made by Mrs. Harry Mitschke.

After everyone had enjoyed the meal, the Rev. Streicher addressed the couple with a few well chosen words befitting the occasion from Psalms 103-1-2 and the singing of church hymns enhanced the beauty of it.

During the evening Rev. Streicher also played tape recordings of the Baganz Sacred Concert as rendered at St. Michael's Church, Winchester.

After the opening and admiring of the many gifts for which the couple graciously thanked each one, games of dominoes and cards were enjoyed until a late hour when again lunch of cake and coffee was served. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Everyone left wishing the couple might also enjoy their golden wedding. This shall be a celebration long to be remembered by all.