Grosse-Mason

A wedding of interest to Giddings people took place Wednesday of last week in Houston when Miss Pauline Grosse and Mr. Hubert Mason were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grosse, former residents of Giddings, and are well and favorably known here. He was in business here at one time, and she was Miss Bettie Richarz. He is now a prominent business man of Houston, being president of the South Texas Grain Co. The bride and groom left for a trip to Havana and New York, and will be at home in Bowling Green, Kentucky. The News joins their many friends in wishing them well.
