

Peggy Ann Mewbourn Becomes Bride Of Willie Edward Mitschke in Double-Ring Home Ceremony

Miss Peggy Ann Mewbourn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mewbourn, and Willie Edward Mitschke were united in marriage on April 30 in an impressive double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, 2314 Fannin Street. Dr. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated.

Rev. W. M. Culwell of Fargo sang "Because" and was accompanied by Miss Sue Ramey, who played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by the father, wore a blue linen dress fashioned with a white madatia lace bertha, a white flower halo headdress and white accessories. She carried out the traditional "something old, new, borrowed and blue." She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. Earl Neighbors of Dallas attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a white waffle pique dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums. Paul Cullar of Northside was the best man.

At the reception the bride's table was covered with a hand-made lace cloth over blue with an off-center arrangement of white snap-dragons and a three-tiered wedding cake with a miniature white Bible and orchid. Miss Dollye Collier served the wedding cake and Miss Catherine Lee Jones presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Mary Enna Dillard was in charge of the bride's book.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to points in Oklahoma the bride was wearing a green linen suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The bride is attending Vernon High School. The groom attended Odell High School and is now engaged in farming in the Northside community.
