

SHOWER.

Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 Mrs. A. P. Hilsberg assisted by her daughter Miss Esther gave a miscellaneous shower at their lovely home, honoring Mrs. Ed. Meyers, a recent bride. The spacious reception room was beautiful in autumn foliage. In the center of the room was a throne of moss and vines to which the bride was ushered, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Albert Karcher, and ushered by little Florence Keng who in her childish way told of the shower in store for the honoree and asked her to peep into a well that had been improvised of moss and autumn leaves.

Alma Hilsberg and Annie Mae Siegmund drew up the many and beautiful gifts showered upon the bride. The bride was beautiful, seated upon the throne and was profuse in her thanks. Miss Snowden sang "The Heart of Her", Miss Eleanor Fletcher played on the violin "Angels' Serenade", both accompanied by Mrs. Karcher on the piano. The hostess served delicious cake and punch.

Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Herman Wagner of Austin and Miss Carrie Schroeder of Cuero.

KRIEDEL - MEYERS

Miss Louise Kriegel and Mr. Edward B. Meyers were married Sunday afternoon at the Martin Luther church by Rev. Mueller. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present, and the newly-weds left immediately for San Antonio where they spent several days, returning Tuesday night. They will make their home in Giddings and occupy rooms at Mrs. Fletcher's.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Ernst Kriegel and is a young lady known for her charm and pleasing manners. The groom is a mechanic employed by the Lee County Motor Company and is known in Giddings as an industrious and trustworthy young man.

The News joins their many friends in wishing them a lengthy and happy life.
