

William Miertschin Takes Vows with Evelyn Albrecht

A double-ring nuptial ceremony uniting Miss Evelyn Albrecht and William Miertschin was performed in Immanuel Lutheran Church in Giddings Dec. 3.

The Rev. Albert Jesse of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Austin read the wedding rites.

Accompanied by Henry Stroebel of Giddings, organist, Mrs. Milton Schroeder of Giddings, sang "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride's wedding ensemble was a white satin gown with a fingertip-length veil of illusion. She wore a triple strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Attending the bridegroom were Gean Albrecht, John

Miertschin, and Charles Winkler.

After the ceremony, a barbecue supper was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple will be at home in Austin, where both are employed. Mrs. Miertschin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Albrecht of Hills and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miertschin of Northrup.
