

The Giddings News

December 4, 1942

Bride-to-be Honored.

Mrs. Albert Nimitz honored her sister Miss Rosalie Mitschke of Austin, bride-to-be Dec. 5 of John Davenport, with a miscellaneous shower at her home Nov. 23. The room was decorated with cut flowers, the bride's chair being placed by a window, both being decorated in white and red tissue. The bridesbook made by Loree Polansky was in charge of Mrs. Isedor Knippa, and each guest was asked to register as they entered the room.

The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts for which she expressed her thanks to each and all for their kindness towards her future happiness. Refreshments of punch, coffee, chicken sandwiches and cake were passed around and enjoyed by the guests after the presents had been unwrapped and passed around to be admired by all.

Those present were: Messrs. James Oswald Mitschke, Joe Milburn and baby, Ernest Marburger and Dolly, John Harris, Ernest Etzel, J. A. Polansky, Lewis Kocurek, Charlie Meyer and Mrs. Alvin Knippa, Mrs. Isedor Knippa and Hildegard of Lincoln, and the hostess Mrs. Albert Nimitz. Those that sent gifts and could not be present were: Mrs. Johanne Nimitz, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Hugo Hannes, Mrs. N. Albers, Mrs. Walter Mitschke, Mrs. Erwin Nimitz, Vlasta Mikulin, Mrs. Leonard Mikulin, Mrs. Richard Wobus, Mrs. Vinc Falcar.